

ALTO

PLATINUM SERIES
CLASSIC

Top of the line PLATINUM SERIES ALTO CLASSIC LACQUER is designed for classical musicians and features a very focused sound, well balanced in the octaves. The classic lacquer finish also contributes in making the sound more classic.

Mechanics have been refined and further improved from the previous edition, resulting in a very responsive but easily controllable instrument.

This alto is customizable on request in every aspect and the set-up is always carefully tailored to the specific preferences of each musician.

This professional line is made in Italy by Luca Cardinali and is the choice of many international top artists.
